BEFORE THE ALASKA STATE COMMISSION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

ALASKA STATE COMMISSION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS, MARTI BUSCAGLIA, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, ex rel., RANDALL DANES,))) Complainant,)
v.)	ASCHR No. J-14-076
STATE OF ALASKA, DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS, DIVISION OF INSTITUTIONS,) Respondent.)

ACCUSATION

Marti Buscaglia, Executive Director of the Alaska State Commission for Human Rights, ex rel. Randall Wayne Danes, hereby alleges the following against Respondent State of Alaska, Department of Corrections, Division of Institutions:

- 1. During the times relevant to this Accusation, Randall Danes was incarcerated by Respondent at Respondent's Palmer Correctional Center (PCC) in Palmer, Alaska.
- 2. Mr. Danes is deaf and uses American Sign Language as his primary means of communication with others.
- 3. While incarcerated at PCC, Mr. Danes was a participant in a welding class offered to him and to other inmates.
- 4. In December 2013, Mr. Danes requested that PCC provide him with a sign language interpreter to assist him in understanding all of the instruction that was being provided to the hearing inmates in the welding class.

- 5. PCC did not provide Mr. Danes with a sign language interpreter for the welding class.
- 6. In January 2014, and again in March, May, and September 2014, Mr. Danes made additional requests for a sign language interpreter to assist him in taking other classes offered by PCC to him and other inmates.
- 7. Mr. Danes made these requests so that he could fully participate in the classes, and told PCC that he could not read lips and explained that written communication during the lecture portions of these classes was inadequate.
- 8. Mr. Danes also told PCC that he needed a sign language interpreter because he could nothear the videos presented in the classes and the videos were not closed captioned.
- 9. PCC did not grant any of Mr. Danes's requests for a sign language interpreter in January, March, May, or September 2014.
- 10. PCC's denial of Mr. Danes's requests for a sign language interpreter diminshed the quality of the instruction he received in the classes relative to other students. One of Mr. Danes's class instructors noted that Mr. Danes was disadvantaged because he was unable to hear the narrative that accompanied the instructional videos and he was unable to hear the instructor's commentary "illuminating" the topics being covered.
