

RESOLUTION

Whereas, The Alaska State Commission for Human Rights has had for many years the privilege of the involvement of one Dorothy Larson and one Carol Smith as Commissioners, and

Whereas, They as individuals are singularly outstanding examples of humanness, exhibiting the qualities of gentleness, forthrightness, assertiveness, suaveness, mental acuity, physical grace and psychological balance, and

Whereas, They also as individuals exhibited behavior which compelled the rest of us to become happy when sad, to become serious when at the extremes of frivolity, to return to the task when tangentially inclined and,

Whereas, They as individuals have relinquished their positions on this Commission to worthy Commissioners,

Be It Therefore Resolved, That both Dorothy and Carol know and understand that they remain positioned with love and fond remembrance in the hearts and minds of all their fellow Commissioners Gonzales, Solomon, Dilts and Chase.

SECONDED: Commissioner Solomon
ADOPTED: 5-0, with one abstention