Notice of Right to Judicial Review

This is a final decision. Alaska Statutes 44.62.560 - 44.62.570 provide for judicial review of this order by the superior court. A notice of appeal must be filed with the superior court within 30 days of the date this order is mailed. All reasonable costs incurred in connection with preparing the transcript and the court's copy of the agency filed shall be borne by the appellant according to the Alaska Court Rules. The agency requires advance payment of the costs as reasonably estimated by the agency.
